1. The following demarches were delivered by Econ/Cons Officer Bakken to Mr. Felix Ngoma, Ministry of Foreign Affairs Americas Desk Officer, on November 23, 2005.

2. MDA Demarch on Additional Geneva Protocol (REF A): In response to talking points and non-paper, Ngoma indicated that the information would be forwarded to the appropriate host-government officials and that he would respond with the government's position, if any.

3. International Maritime Organization - Demarche in Support of U.S. Candidacy (REF B): EMBOFF presented talking points and non-paper to Ngoma. Later in the afternoon, a Note Verbal was prepared and delivered to the MFA that Ngoma agreed would be forwarded via fax or email to the delegation in London.

4. WTO/DOHA Ministerial in Hong Kong and Various Talking Points (REFS C-F): Bakken delivered talking points and non-papers to Mr. Ngoma and inquired about whether the ROC had a delegation attending the meeting. On November 25, 2005, Ngoma indicated that the head of delegation would be the Minister of Commerce, Ms. Adelaide Moundele-Ngolo. Bakken underlined the fact that the U.S. Delegation was inviting the ROC, among others, to side-meetings on various topics and that post would be happy to pass along contact information to allow the meetings to be set up.

5. Release of International Religious Freedom Report (REF G): EMBOFF presented copies of the Introduction and Country Report for the Republic of Congo to Mr. Ngoma and provided the website information for retrieving additional copies and the full report.

6. Deputy Secretary Zoellick's Speech in Khartoum (REF H): A copy of the speech was provided to Mr. Ngoma for reference along with the website information for retrieving additional copies for distribution to appropriate officials.
